

DEFENDERS OF THE RIFT

A Chris Walswick and Holly Lowe production

Description:

- Defenders of the Rift is a location based creature battling game
- Upon location change you may encounter a new creature and will be notified for a battle!
- In training you can also battle your creatures to improve their stats.
- When battling creatures you can attack, use an item like the creature vortex to capture a creature, run away, or choose another creature.
- The map view will show where you have captured creatures
(Look out for this feature in version 2.0)!
